CO-PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Larry Mergentime

Jen Schwartz

Dear Friends of COPE,

We are proud to offer our 2022 Annual Report which highlights all that your support made possible, with thanks to our donors, board members, staff, volunteers and all of you who help care for our families.

The original vision for COPE has grown over more than 24 years as we have supported countless families living with loss and provided opportunities for healing.

Virtual access in this post-pandemic world has meant we have had more meetings, more enrollment, more groups, more workshops, and more connections to those working on behalf of bereaved families. This past year we welcomed new board members, new facilitators, a community outreach coordinator and a marketing coordinator. This was also our first year having co-presidents at the helm of the COPE board and we're happy to report the experiment is a success! :)

We were able to reach an increasing number of families in 2022, some needing us more than ever before. COPE facilitated 176 support groups for 1,184 people this past year. That's really impressive and highlights our focus on amplifying our offerings for under-served and under-resourced communities and expanding our geographical reach for support.

We continue growing, now with additional contributors and ambassadors helping us to scale our year-round family-centered support system. COPE takes great pride in our sustainability and community. We would like to express our gratitude for our compassionate and dedicated Executive Director Adam Rabinovitch and Clinical & Program Director Claire Sharkey, whose thoughtful and steady approach and vision have been invaluable.

We are grateful to our generous donors who helped sustain and support COPE this past year and appreciate your continued support.

Many thanks,

Larry Mergentime and Jen Schwartz

Messages of Thanks

Our Biggest #GivingTuesday yet!

Introducing: COPE (again!)

Thank you to our support group facilitators, group members, and staff who helped us in creating a brand new video introducing COPE's services and mission to our community. And a special thanks to Reflection Films for putting it all together!

OUR SUPPORT GROUPS

Through 2022 COPE continued to provide free, professionally-facilitated peer support groups for families living with the loss of a child. Last year we had over 1,100 grieving individuals attend 176 unique support groups for parents, siblings, and teens. As COVID restrictions lifted, some groups began meeting in person once again, and we launched our Newly Bereaved Sibling Virtual Support Group in June. During 2022 we received over 375 new intakes from individuals looking for grief resources. Anyone interested in joining one of our support groups can email our Clinical Director, Claire Sharkey, LCSW at claire@copefoundation.org.

Parent Groups

COPE offers support groups facilitated by licensed clinicians for parents living with the loss of a child to come together regularly for peer support and connection.

Teen & Young Adult Groups

COPE offers a support group facilitated by a licensed clinician for teens and young adults ages 16-22 living with the loss of a significant loved one to come together regularly for peer support and connection.

Sibling Groups

COPE offers support groups facilitated by licensed clinicians for adults living with the loss of a sibling to come together regularly for peer support and connection.

GRIEF & HEALING WORKSHOPS

In 2022, COPE provided 26 diverse grief and healing workshops, some with valuable community partners. We reached over 1,000 attendees who, through COPE's workshops, gained tools for living with grief. We also had over 200 individuals call our free COPE Line, hosted by trained volunteers to assist with grief. Here are just a few of last year's many healing workshop highlights:

Journey Dance: Processing Grief through Movement

An introduction to the use of movement, imagery and affirmations to become attuned to our own bodies and emotions.

The Intersection of Art & Loss

Hamptons Bay Artist, Jody Cukier, spoke on how she utilized her artwork to begin healing after the loss of her daughter when she was 13 years old.

Stress less with Reiki

Jean Marie, Advanced Reiki Practitioner, led us through a 3 part workshop series on the origin of Reiki, supporting research, and other energy balancing resources.

GRIEF & HEALING WORKSHOPS

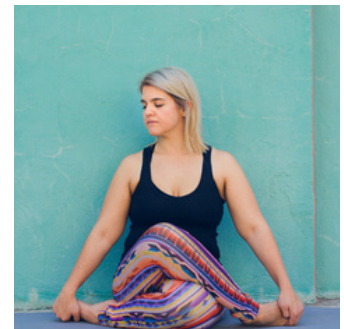

Healing through Music: The Soundtrack of Your Life

A musical reflection of your stories & the role music played in those moments. Josh Robinson also led us through a relaxation & wellness portion filled with live soundscapes.

Restorative Yoga for Grief & Loss

Hosted by Danaelle Rodriguez, this class focused on the healing power of yoga through mindful movement, grounding postures, breath, and sound to release loss.

Dream Visits: Close Encounters of the Spiritual Kind

Carla Blowey, author of Dreaming Kevin: The Path to Healing, discussed dreams as a valuable tool for reconciling the death of a loved one or child.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

2022 brought two exciting new community partnerships, as well as continued partnership with Pinelawn Memorial Park & Arboretum. These partnerships allow us to expand our mission and bring grief & healing services to more families in our community that need them.

Pinelawn Memorial Park & Arboretum

Pinelawn was a valuable ongoing partner of COPE in 2022. We hosted 12 free virtual grief & healing workshops with them, and they made nearly $10,000 worth of investments into COPE's mission and future.

Shames JCC on the Hudson

We're excited to have begun an new partnership with the Shames JCC on the Hudson! Together we put on one grief & healing workshop in 2022, with more to come in 2023! Stay tuned!

Molloy University

At the end of 2022 we began a partnership with Molloy University's Community Care mobile clinic, which provides free screenings, education & referrals regarding various health topics to communities across Long Island. We are excited to continue this partnership into 2023!

OUR 2022 EVENTS

COPE Walk 2022

On October 16, 2022 we held our COPE Walk on the beautiful Long Beach Boardwalk. It was a beautiful day to walk in honor of the children, siblings and loved ones who have passed and to support COPE families. We also raised over $35,000 in support of COPE's mission so we can continue providing free support groups and workshops to families in need.

2022 Annual Golf Outing

At our 2021 golf outing we raised nearly $125,000...
In 2022 we raised over $200,000 in support of grieving parents, siblings, children, and families!
Thank you to all who joined us at Glen Head Country Club cannot say thank you enough!

Camp Erin NYC 2022

We were so excited to finally return to Camp Wayne for Camp Erin NYC 2022! This year we served 44 children and 28 parents with the help of over 60 volunteers and staff! It was an incredible weekend filled with healing, fun, and friends.

“COPE grief support meetings have been my lifesaver at a time when I felt singled out and devastated over the loss of my son. Meeting with other parents going through similar losses has helped me every single day to continue on this journey. Knowing that you are not alone and being able to talk about your feelings is something I will need to do for a very long time.” – SS

“It’s comforting to know that there is a place I can go where other people truly understand my pain.” – BC

“COPE literally saved my life. 9 years ago my son passed away suddenly. No warning. I was desperate for help. 2 years had passed and I was struggling immensely. By the Grace of God I found COPE. I am so grateful to all that work and volunteer at COPE.” – AC

“Forever grateful for the opportunity afforded me and my grandchildren when they lost their mother and maternal uncle.” – RJ

“Until I discovered COPE, I had never known anyone who had suffered the loss of a child. I now know people who understand my pain and grief, and I can find support whenever I need it.” – JB

“After my sister died, I didn’t feel the need to go to any support groups because I thought I could cope on my own. It wasn’t until I started attending the COPE sibling group that I realized I needed the support and sensitivity of people who have suffered a similar loss.” – GJ

OUR BIGGEST GI♥ING TUESDAY YET!

With your help, we raised over $46,000 this year during Giving Tuesday, our biggest year yet! It's your generosity and philanthropy that allows us to continue providing life-saving and life-giving resources to grieving families. From the bottom of our hearts, THANK YOU!

WITH LONG ISLAND BUSINESS NEWS

Michaela McBride, MS, OTR/L
Communications
& Marketing Manager

Congratulations to our Communications & Marketing Manager, Michaela McBride, who was honored at Long Island Business News' 2022 30 Under 30 Awards. Michaela initially became connected to COPE when she attended Camp Erin NYC. She then went on to volunteer for camp and as our Social Media Coordinator, before joining our staff as Communications & Marketing Manager. We're thankful to have her on our team!

COPE'S COMMUNITY LEADERS

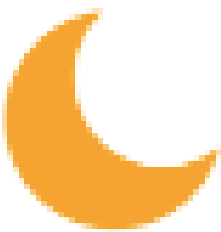

Pinelawn

Through our ongoing partnership with Pinelawn Memorial Park and Arboretum, in 2022 alone we provided 12 grief and healing workshops to almost 1,000 participants. Additionally, Pinelawn invested nearly $10,000 in COPE to help sustain our mission and services.

CC Capital

Thank you to CC Capital for their incredibly generous, inspired and inspiring donation to COPE in the amount of $20,000 made as a matching gift as part of our 2022 #GivingTuesday campaign. This investment ensured that COPE can support an additional 100+ grieving families in 2023.

Eluna

Over the last 12 years, Eluna has been a partner providing sustaining funding and support through 2022 - 2023 to come. In 2022 Eluna made a generous $5,000 investment in COPE, which helped us welcome 72 campers and caregivers at Camp Erin NYC 2023.
